Douglass Cater, Allen Dulles to Speak at Parley

MIDDLETOWN (Special) — Allen W. Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency will speak at Wesleyan University's annual student parley Feb. 24-25. The topic will be "Government Secrecy in a Free Society."

The former CIA chief will speak at 2 p.m. Feb. 24 in Memorial Chapel and then join three others in a panel discussion Feb. 25 at 2:30 p.m. in the recreation room of the Foss Hill dormitories.

Douglas Cater, Washington editor of The Reporter Magazine and the other principal participant at the two-day affair, will speak at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Chapel.

Each speech on Saturday will be followed by a discussion period.

Other Panelists

Joining Dulles and Cater on the panel Sunday will be Joseph Tussman, professor of philosophy, and Paul Hammond, visiting assistant professor of government both of Wesleyan.

Dulles resigned from the CIA last year after eight years as its director. He had served as Chief of the Division of Near Eastern Affairs of the State Department, as a delegate to several disarmament conferences in Geneva, and as a member of the New York law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell before joining the CIA in 1951 as assistant director. He became director in 1953.
